Artera Platform – Terms of Use Policy for Clients

Effective Date: 1/1/2026

1. Definitions

Platform / Application: Refers to the Artera mobile application, owned and operated by Artelligence Creation Company, designed to connect clients with independent service providers in beauty, photography, music, and other creative services.

Client: Any person using the platform to book services provided by an independent service provider.

Service Provider: A person or legal entity registered on the platform and authorized to offer professional services through the app.

Service: Any professional activity or task booked via the platform and performed by a service provider for the client.

Confirmed Booking: A booking that has been fully paid and officially confirmed through the platform.

Review / Rating: The client's opinion about the received service, submitted after completion.

Personal Data: Any information that identifies or relates to the identity of a client.

Notification: Any message sent through the platform or through the WhatsApp to the official number associated with the client's account registered in the application.

2. Scope of Agreement

These Terms govern the client's use of the platform to book services provided by independent service providers in beauty, photography, music, or any future categories added to the platform. Artera acts solely as a digital intermediary and does not directly provide any of the services. Booking through the platform does not establish a contractual relationship between the client and Artelligence Creation Company regarding the execution of the service.

3. Booking and Payment

All bookings and payments must be completed exclusively through the official digital channels within the application. A booking is only considered confirmed once the full amount is successfully received through the approved payment gateways. Service prices are set by the service providers and are clearly displayed on the platform. Clients may use AI-powered preview tools to evaluate services before making a booking.

4. Cancellation and Refund

If cancellation occurs by the client more than twenty-four (24) hours of the scheduled appointment, 80% of the booking amount will be refunded, and 20% will be retained as a platform fee. If cancellation occurs within 24 hours of the appointment, the booking is considered final and non-refundable. If the service provider fails to show up within two hours of the scheduled time without prior notice, a full refund will be issued to the client upon submitting a refund request through the application and approved by the application management.

5. Client Obligations

The client must provide a safe and respectful environment for the service provider, attend the appointment on time, and refrain from inappropriate behavior, including unauthorized photography or recording. It is strictly prohibited to contact the service provider outside the platform or attempt to bypass the official booking and payment system.

6. Limitation of Liability

The platform makes no express or implied warranties regarding the service provider's performance. Artelligence Creation Company disclaims any liability for delays, cancellations, or unsatisfactory service outcomes. The platform's role is limited to facilitating booking, payment, and communication.

7. Ratings and Reviews

Clients may submit reviews after service completion, provided they are honest and free from offensive or defamatory content. The platform reserves the right to remove or hide any review that violates its policies or applicable laws.

8. Acceptable Use

The platform may not be used for illegal or fraudulent purposes. Abuse of booking systems, misuse of discount or referral codes, or creation of fake or duplicate accounts is strictly prohibited.

9. Legal Compliance

This Agreement and any dispute arising from its use are governed by the laws and regulations of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, and the competent courts within the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes.

10. Amendments

The Platform reserves the right to modify this Policy at any time. Continued use of the Platform following such amendments constitutes acceptance of the updated policy.
